INSIGHTS VOL. 50

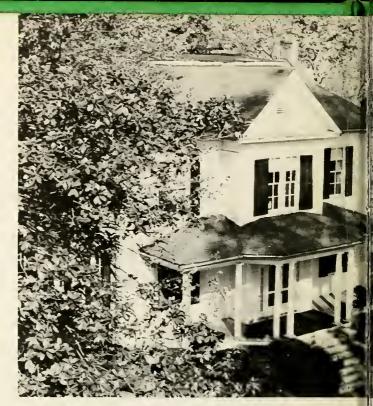

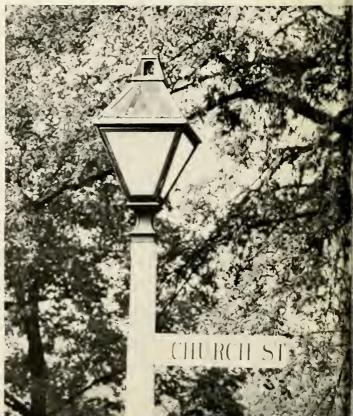

Let us love nobly, and live, and add again Years and years unto years till we attain To write threescore.

This is the second of our reign.

- John Donne

Somewhere beyond silence

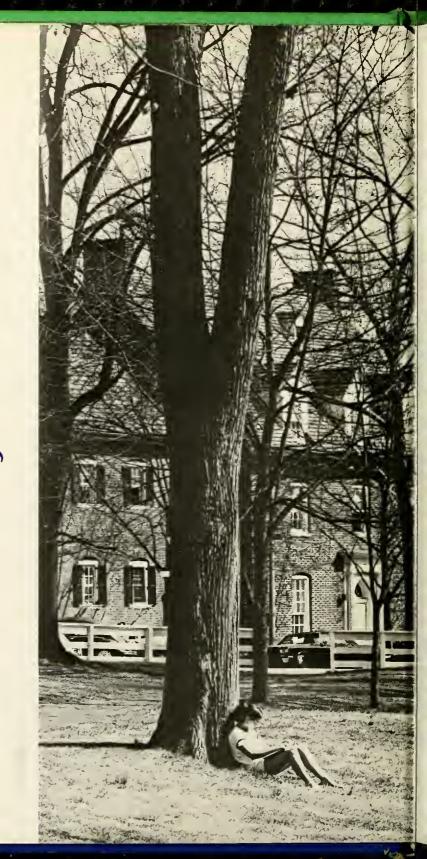

the square continues her vigil of silence... Colored with the leaves of four seasons

two hundred years of wisdom in the breath of a breeze

And we a part of that silence involved

but detached

often reminded that it takes a fine command of language to say nothing...

We fail and begin again:

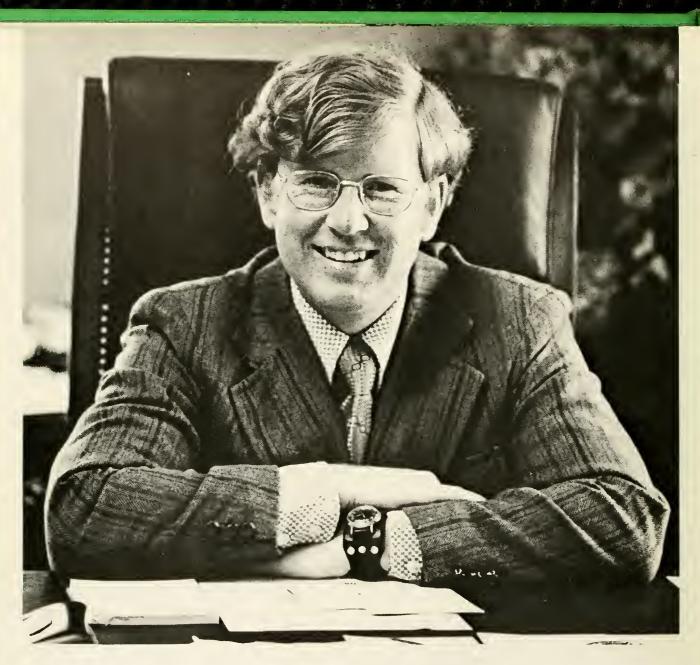

Our heads held high in the defiance that is the voice of our age

... a helper with problems ... someone always willing to talk even late at night ... involved in every aspect of Salem. ... has a great memory of names and is subject to student crushes. He is shy, easy-going and a real flamer. He is a man of personal and professional integrity, patience and understanding. He comes prepared with ski equipment, pink and yellow birthday balloons, and wire rims. He is a classic of a tennis player and is known as the famous "Black Jack Dealer from the Dakota Strip." He has been the first two feet of a caterpillar race. His name — "Flaming Arrow" — is derived from his blushing face, his sunburned bald spot and his hair. He plans to give up the mountains of North Carolina for the foothills of Montana.

He is our own - D.K.
